

REGULATIONS FOR THE CALCULATION AND PAYMENT OF FEES AND DUES FOR ENROLMENT ON COURSES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SIENA
A.Y. 2022/2023

SECTION I: GENERAL RULES REGARDING STUDENT CONTRIBUTIONS

Art 1. Subject

1. These Regulations set down the criteria for calculating the fees and dues to be paid by students enrolled on courses at the University of Siena, as well as the procedures for payment thereof, with the sole exception of university master's programmes, training, advanced training, and refresher courses, as well as teacher training courses, which are governed by specific provisions, except where specifically mentioned herein.

Art. 2 Fees and dues: general principles

1. The fees to be paid by the student who enrolls in one of the study courses included under Art. 1, are calculated with reference to the type of course chosen, the student's economic situation and merit, in accordance with the criteria set out in Section II below, with consideration for the provisions contained in Law no. 232 dated 11/12/2016.

2. The amount due is payable in four instalments, in accordance with the procedures set forth in t. below, by the following deadlines:

- the first at the time enrolment, and in any case no later than 2 November each year.
- the second by 20 December each year.
- the third by 28 February each year.
- the fourth by 2 May each year.

Should any of the deadlines fall on a holiday or on the day before a public holiday, the deadline will be extended to the next working day.

3. Regular enrolment in University of Siena courses is subject to payment of the amounts due; payment of the first instalment secures registration or enrolment.

4. The following dues must be added to the first instalment of university fees:

- a. regional tax for the Right to University Education (DSU), in accordance with current legislation.
- b. virtual stamp duty, in accordance with current legislation.

Virtual stamp duty cannot be reimbursed, whereas requests for reimbursement of the regional DSU tax must be made directly to the ARDSU (regional agency for the right to university education).

5. The revenue stamp under b) above is payable online only at the time of enrolment/matriculation, including for university master's programmes, training, advanced training and refresher courses, and Winter and Summer schools.

6. Students who are not up to date with payment of fees and dues and/or any related late-payment fees, in accordance with Art. 4 below, cannot sit exams or complete any administrative act.

Art. 3 Methods of payment

1. The methods of payment of fees and dues under art. 2 are specified on an annual basis in the Study Prospectus or in the calls for applications.

Art. 4 Surcharges for late payments

1. Students who make payments after the due date or who do not comply with the deadlines set herein will be required to pay a progressively greater surcharge as follows

- a. 10 Euros for payments made within 14 days after the deadline.
- b. 25 Euros for payments made between the 15th and 21st day after the deadline.
- c. 50 Euros for payments made between the 22nd and 30th day after the deadline.
- d. 100 Euros for payments made from the 31st day after the deadline.

Art. 5 Reimbursement of university fees and dues

1. Any excess payments are compensated in accordance with the procedures defined by the University, as reported in the dedicated web page.

SECTION II: FEES

Art. 6 Calculating fees and dues

1. The amount to be paid students enrolled in bachelor's, master's or single cycle degree courses at the University of Siena is determined on the basis of the following elements:

- a) category the degree course falls under.
- b) economic status of the student's family unit, as indicated by the Indicator of equivalent economic situation (ISEE with 31 December 2022 expiration date) valid for DSU benefits, drawn up in compliance with the provisions of art. 8 DPCM 159/2013 and subsequent amendments and additions
- c) year of enrolment¹,
- d) University credits (CFU) earned in the twelve months prior to 10 August.

2. The degree courses fall under three different categories:

- a) humanities-social studies (US),
- b) technical-scientific (TS),
- c) EU-regulated healthcare (UE).

Courses fall under the individual categories as follows:

- a) the courses offered by the Departments below are grouped under the US category:
 - Area of Economics, Law, and Political Sciences,
 - Area Literature, History, Philosophy, and the Arts.
- b) the courses offered by the Departments below - except for scientific degree courses under classes L-35 and LM-40 (considered equivalent to those under the US category) and the courses listed under point c) below belong to the TS category:
 - Area of Biomedical and Medical Sciences,
 - Area of Experimental Sciences.
- c) the following single cycle degree courses belong to the EU area:
 - LM 41 – Medicine and surgery,
 - LM 46 – Dentistry and Dental Prosthodontics.

3. The fee to be paid by each enrolled student, according to the elements under par. 1 above, is:

¹ The year of enrolment as referred to in the following table A is based on all the academic years of enrolment to the current university course of study (e.g., transfers from other universities/change of course of study)

4. Only for students registering for the Dentistry and Dental Prosthodontics courses (class LM 46) who do not submit an ISEE certificate or declare an amount in excess of 30,000 Euros, the amounts under Table A above will be increased by 1,650.00 Euros in relation to the particular nature of this single cycle degree course.
5. For students who are citizens of non-EU member countries and are not resident in Italy, and for students to whom ISEE calculation is not applicable to their family unit, without prejudice to the surcharge indicated under par. 4 above, the amount of the all-inclusive annual fee is equal to the amounts corresponding to the "9X" range of Table A above, multiplied by the following coefficients, if the value is less than one; these coefficients are calculated by comparing the Gross National Product (GNP) per capita, adjusted for purchasing power parity (PPP) in the country of origin, as compared to Italy, based on the information published by the International Monetary Fund (IMF). The amount of the contribution due can in any case be no less than 400² Euros.
6. For students entitled to enrol based on the rulings of competent administrative legal bodies, the enrolment fee due for each academic year definitively concluded will be 600 Euros.

² The following categories of students cannot present the ordinary ISEE valid for subsidized services for the right to university studies according to art. 8 of DPCM 159/2013, and its subsequent amendments and additions:

- a) Foreigners who are not residents in Italy
- b) Foreigners who are residents or are staying in Italy but are not autonomous (art. 8 DPCM 159/2013), whose original family unit are residents in a country different from Italy, with income and assets abroad.
- c) Italians who are residents abroad not registered with the AIRE

The abovementioned students may submit a request for the university fees (Table A) to be reduced based on the ISEU parificato, which could be issued by an authorized CAF and sent by certified email (pec) by the student or by the same CAF to: gestione-tasse@unisi.it.

In absence of the ISEU parificato, without prejudice to the increase referred to in paragraph 4, the annual all-inclusive amount is established in an amount equal to that as per paragraph 5.

Developing countries

(*) a minimum fee of 400 Euros is applied to Countries not listed above

Art. 7 Part-time students

1. For students enrolled as part time, the "normal" duration will be increased from one to six years, depending on the course of study and the number of academic years for which part-time status was requested.

Art. 8 Pre-registered students

1. Students who pre-register on degree courses are not required to pay anything.

Art. 8 bis Simultaneous enrolment in the Courses of the University of Siena

Students enrolled at the same time in two first and/or second level courses of study at the University of Siena may apply for the "simultaneous enrolment" benefit on the second course of study, which consists of exemption from the payment of the regional fee already paid for the first course of study and a reduction of 50% of the entire amount of university fees calculated according to the criteria set out in Art. 6.

Art. 9 Students enrolled on doctoral research programmes

1. Students enrolled on doctoral programmes who have not been awarded a grant are required to pay virtual stamp duty, in accordance with current legislation, and the regional tax of the Regional Agency for the Right to University Education (DSU); at the time of enrolment, doctoral students with grants are also required to pay the University an all-inclusive yearly fee of 340 Euros.

Art. 10 Students enrolled in Postgraduate Schools

1. The rules set forth under art. 6 are applicable to students enrolled in postgraduate programmes who do not have a vocational training contract; in this case, one of the three categories (US, TS, UE) will be applied on the basis of the degree required for admission to the programme. In any case, the all-inclusive annual fee payable can be no less than 1,200 Euros.

2. Students enrolled in postgraduate schools in the area of healthcare who have a vocational training contract, army doctors and medical personnel who belong to specific categories and serve in healthcare structures other than those included in the training network of the school who have reserved their places pursuant to art. 35, paragraphs 3 and 4 and Legislative Decree 368/99, are required to pay an annual, all-inclusive fee of 2,400 Euros.

3. Without prejudice to the procedures for admission to Postgraduate Schools in the area of healthcare reorganized and accredited pursuant to Ministerial decrees no. 68 of 4 February 2015, and no. 402 of 13 June 2017, should a specializing student request to transfer to a postgraduate programme at another university during the course of a year, having already paid the University of Siena the contributions due and having already signed the contract for specialist training, said student may request even partial reimbursement of sums paid. The sum to be reimbursed is 180 Euros for every full month from the start of the academic year and up to the date of forfeiture by the specializing student.

4. The number of instalments and due dates as per art. 2, par. 2 above can be waived with a specific provision for particular types of Schools the academic year of which follows a particular schedule: the relevant offices will immediately inform the interested parties of the new procedures. At the time of enrolment, postgraduate students are in any case required to pay 50% of the amount due.

5. The amount under paragraphs 1 and 2 above decreases to 400 Euros if the student is solely required to sit for the final examination.

6. In addition to the amounts listed in this article, students are required to pay virtual stamp duty, in accordance with current legislation, and the amount set by the Region of Tuscany as the regional tax for the Right to University Education (DSU); students enrolled in the postgraduate programmes in the medical area included under Legislative Decree no. 368 of 17 August 1999 are exempted from paying the regional tax.

SECTION III: OTHER DUES

Art. 11 Dues for transferring to another University

1. Students requesting a transfer to another University are required to pay a non-refundable 250 Euros contribution.

2. Only students who are up to date with payments on the day the application is submitted are entitled to apply for transfers.

3. Fees and contributions paid prior to requesting a transfer are not refundable.
4. Pursuant to Art. 30 of these Regulations, students who are incarcerated are exempt from payment of the transfer contribution.

Art. 12 Fee for recognition and suspension of enrolment

1. Students who, as at the last exam session of the previous academic year, are lacking only the University credits required for the final examination, must pay the 400 Euro recognition fee. In addition to said amount, they must pay virtual stamp duty in accordance with the amount set by the laws in force as well as the amount set by the Region of Tuscany as the regional tax for the Right to University Education (DSU).
2. Students required to complete 30 University credits in addition to those required for the final examination, or only the final examination if they are enrolled in degree courses under the educational system prior to Ministerial Decree 509/1999, who do not modify their plan of study and plan to complete all their exams by the end of the last exam session of the previous academic year, may request suspension of enrolment, and consequently payment of the amounts due, in the new academic year. A request for suspension must be submitted by the deadline for enrolment in the new academic year.

Art. 13 Interruption of studies, resumption of studies and career reunification

1. Studies are interrupted automatically if a student fails to renew his/her enrolment for at least two consecutive academic years without applying for suspension pursuant to article 31 of the University Regulations
2. The interruption may be for several academic years, as long as the prescription periods under applicable laws are respected.
3. A student who abandons or interrupts his/her studies for any reason shall under no circumstances receive reimbursement for fees and dues paid.
4. A student who intends to resume his/her studies after an interruption thereof, must submit a specific career reunification application (resumption of studies) and that student shall be required to pay a reunification contribution of 500 Euros for US type courses and of 600 Euros for other types of courses for each year of interruption, plus the fees and contributions payable for the academic year in which studies are resumed.
5. If the student interrupts studies for five years or more, he/she must pay an amount corresponding to the last five years of interruption.

Art. 14 Interruption of studies: suspension

1. During the suspension period under Art. 31 of the University Regulations, students are exempt from payment of University fees and dues and cannot pursue any studies. The application for suspension of the career must be submitted at the beginning of each academic year in which the suspension is intended to be enforced.
2. Suspension is not compatible with part-time student status pursuant to Art. 7.

Art. 15 Interruption of studies: withdrawal

1. Students can withdraw from their studies under art. 31 of the University Degree Regulations only if they are up to date with the payment of all fees and dues owed by the date of application for withdrawal. The withdrawal procedure applies only to students fully registered/enrolled in accordance with Art. 2³.
2. Non-payment of tuition fees and dues does not constitute tacit withdrawal from studies. Students who do not pay the fees and dues owed cannot continue their studies in any way and have not terminated their relationship with the University of Siena: they cannot conduct any further enrolment.

Art. 16 Enrolment in single courses

1. The fee for enrolling in single courses pursuant to these Regulations is 130 Euros for US type courses and 150 Euros for other courses, plus the amount resulting from multiplying the cost of each individual credit (set at 15 Euros for US courses and 20 Euros for other types of courses) and the number of credits required for the course selected. The amount due for each single course is therefore based on the following formulas:

$$\text{US-type courses} = \text{Euro } 130.00 + (\text{Euro } 15.00 * \text{No. of credits})$$

Other courses = Euro 150.00 + (Euro 20.00*No. of credits)

³ If the payment effected is only the tax stamp fee and the student has renounced his/her studies before the publication of the merit ranking for an ARDSU study scholarship in which s/he has been excluded, the student must pay the fees due.

2. Virtual stamp duty, in accordance with current legislation, must be added to the amount calculated above.

Art. 17 Deliveries of original diplomas and costs for duplicating diplomas

1. The cost of producing the original diplomas is included in the annual fees.
2. It is possible to send the original diplomas to the address specified by the student on payment of a special fee to cover postage and handling: 25 Euros for delivery in Italy and 40 Euros for delivery within the EU.
3. The cost of duplicating an original diploma is 100 Euros. This provision also applies to University Master's diplomas.
4. Original professional qualification certificates issued by the appropriate Ministry through the University are free of charge.

Art. 18 Registration fee for the admission test to first cycle degree courses and participating in competitions for admission to degree courses with a cap on enrolment

1. Participation in tests for assessing students' initial preparation is subject to a non-refundable fee of 30 Euros. Participation in tests for which specific agreements and/or contracts have been stipulated with the University, following the approval of the University Bodies, is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the agreement and/or contract.
2. Participation in competitions for admission to limited enrolment courses is subject to a non-refundable fee of 60 Euros. This value may be subject to changes in amount if provided for by ministerial provisions.

Art. 19 Fee for sitting State Board Examinations

1. Those who wish to sit State Board Exams must pay a fee of 310 Euros.
2. Those who wish to sit the exam for chartered accountants must pay a 100 Euro fee.
3. Assessed curricular training for qualifying as a physician is subject to a 110 Euro fee.
4. Any extra-curricular traineeships for qualifying as a physician, where applicable under current legislations, must pay a 260 Euro fee.

Art. 20 Fee for recognition of a foreign academic qualification

1. Recognition of a foreign academic qualification awarded by a non-EU country, for the purpose of receiving an equivalent Italian university degree, is subject to payment of a non-refundable fee of 150 Euros.
2. This fee is not due if there is an agreement between the University of Siena and the foreign university for the recognition of degrees.
3. Evaluation of foreign degrees for admission to second cycle degree courses through the University's online platform is subject to payment of a non-refundable fee of 30 Euros.

Art. 20/bis Dues for services provided by request to meet students' personal needs

1. Should a student wish to insert, integrate or correct the ISEE self-certifications after 20 December, a 30 Euro charge will be applied.
2. A 30 Euro charge will be applied to applications submitted after the deadlines indicated in the annual Study Prospectus.

SECTION IV: STUDENT BENEFITS

Art. 21 Disabled students

1. Students with disabilities and with a recognized handicap pursuant to art. 3 par. 1 and 3 of Law 104/1992 or with recognized invalidity equal to or greater than 66% are fully exempted from payment of the university fees and the regional tax for the Right to University Education (DSU).

2. Students with a disability, recognized at the start of the academic year, of between 50% and 65% may apply for the Solidarity Fund (art. 30 below), which grants total or partial exemption from payment of university fees.

3. Any students who are children of individuals receiving disability pension, according to art. 30 of law 118/71, are granted exemption from payment of university fees upon specific request to be submitted at the beginning of the academic year.

Art. 22 Students who are in receipt of, or eligible for, a grant from the Regional Agency for the Right to University Education (DSU)

1. Students who enrol on a study course and who apply for grants from the Regional Agency for the Right to University Education, are temporarily exempted from payment of university fees until the final ranking of successful candidates is published; students who have been awarded grants or who are eligible for grants based on the same lists are totally exempted from payment.

Art. 23 Students in receipt of a six-month grant from the Regional Agency for the Right to University Education

1. Students who, within the last call for the last session of the academic year, apply for a grant from the Regional Agency for the Right to University Education (DSU) for an additional semester over and above the normal duration of the course, and who have completed all the University credits required for their plan of study, except those for the final examination, are exempt from payment of the credit recognition fee.

2. Students who fail to earn all the University credits required for their plan of study by the last call of the last session of the academic year, shall be exempted from payment of 50% of the amount covering fees and dues pursuant to paragraph 2, Art. 2 of this Regulation, by the last deadline provided.

Art. 23 bis Simultaneous enrolment Students who are holders of or eligible for a scholarship or semi-annual scholarship from the Regional Agency for the Right to University Study.

The student who enrolls at the same time in two courses of study identifies one of the two enrollments as a reference to access the benefits provided for by current legislation on the right to study, for the entire period of simultaneous enrollment in the two courses of study. Students already enrolled in a course of study in years following the first one cannot identify the second enrolment as a reference for the purposes of the benefits for the right to study. In order to increase the amount of the scholarship provided for in article 6, paragraph 3, of the decree of the Minister of University and Research of 17 December 2021, no. 1320, the student must maintain for both courses of study in which they are enrolled the merit requirements provided for by the aforementioned decree.

Art. 24 Students whose study grant has been revoked by the Regional Agency for the Right to University Education

1. Students whose study grant has been revoked by the Regional Agency for the Right to University Education (DSU) must pay fees and dues for the year in question, in addition to the regional tax for the Right to University Education. In the event that the grant is revoked or not allocated due to withdrawal from studies, the fees and dues owed at the date of withdrawal must still be paid.

Art. 25 Students in receipt of grants from the Italian government

1. Overseas students who receive study grants from the Italian government are fully exempted from payment of university fees and dues.

Art. 26 Students with Political refugee status

1. Students enrolled in first cycle, single cycle or second cycle degree courses and those enrolled in postgraduate and doctoral programmes who have also been granted refugee status or additional protection, are exempt from payment of university fees in full, except for the amounts under Art. 2, par. 4 above.

2. Other international students, even if not in possession of refugee or subsidiary protection status, who are in situations of particular gravity following due assessments by a suitable Commission in the context of the activities of the "Just Peace" University Project, may also be exempted from the payment of the entire university contribution, with the exclusion of the amount as per Art.2 par. 4.

Art. 27 Detained students

1. Students detained in prisons covered by the Agreement Protocols between the University of Siena and the Tuscany Regional Penitentiary Administration Department must pay an annual enrolment fee of 150 Euros in addition to the regional tax for the Right to University Education.
2. This amount is also applied in the case of resumption of interrupted studies or when the status of graduand is accorded

Art. 28 Special categories of students

1. Students enrolled in first cycle, single cycle or second cycle degree courses who are sixty years old or more are entitled to a 50% reduction of the entire amount of university fees due, calculated according to the criteria under Art. 6.
2. Students enrolled in first cycle, single cycle or second cycle degree courses who are employees of the University of Siena with a permanent contract or have held a temporary contract for at least the last six months at the time of enrolment, and students who are permanent employees of the Siena University Hospital at the date of enrolment must pay a single annual, all-inclusive fee of 531 Euros.
3. In application of what has been accorded with public bodies, or public or private institutions in Italy or overseas, through the stipulation of various agreements on learning approved by university bodies, the University of Siena can apply facilitations to particular student categories, regulating them as part of the said agreements.
4. All students receiving benefits as above must pay the regional tax for the Right to University Education, in addition to the amounts due.

Art. 29 Student collaborations

1. In addition to the assistance provided as described in the preceding articles, in order to further promote and encourage access and completion of university studies by able, deserving students in difficult financial situations, also considering the opportunity to train and enhance the professional maturity of university students, each year the University publishes calls for tutoring activities and paid part-time work within the limits set by the university budget.

Art. 30 Solidarity fund

1. In accordance with budgetary funding, the University of Siena has set up a Solidarity Fund in favour of students in adequately documented difficult situations, even if temporary. Support, consisting in partial or total exemption from payment of university fees is provided on request and is deliberated by a specific Committee nominated through Rectoral Decree. The members of this committee shall include the Rector or his delegate, the Director of the Student Services Area or his delegate, the student representatives on the Council and the head of the office responsible for the procedure, who shall function as recording secretary.
2. In addition to students in the situations described above, the Fund can also be accessed by the students referred to in art. 21, par. 2 of the Regulations for the calculation and payment of fees and dues for enrolment on courses at the University of Siena and students who are resident in areas affected by earthquakes and/or natural disasters may also access the fund, and may be fully or partly exempted from payment of university fees for the academic year in which the event took place, or in the one immediately following it, on condition that the student's home has been declared unsafe for habitation. Exemption applies to payment of University fees, but not to the regional DSU tax.
3. The application procedure, required documentation, criteria for assessment and for providing benefits are described in a specific call for applications issued annually through Rectoral Decree. The call for applications may specify that the Fund be allocated in one or more moments during the academic year, depending on when university fees are due.

Art. 31 Virtual stamp duty

1. In addition to the amount due, all students in receipt of the benefits listed above in Section IV must also pay a virtual revenue stamp in accordance with the laws in force.

SECTION V: FINAL PROVISIONS

Art. 32 Fiscal checks and penalties for false statements

1. In application of legislation in force, the University of Siena conducts random checks on statements made by students in self-certifications.
2. Students submitting false statements, regarding themselves or their family members, in order to obtain subsidies that they do not have a right to, will be required to pay the maximum university fees for the type of study course enrolled in, in addition to any legal sanctions, and will forfeit the right to obtain other subsidies for the entire duration of their academic studies. In addition, an administrative fine will be levied against these students, comprising the payment of an amount which is threefold the value of the services unduly used, and will lose the right to obtain other provisions for the duration of the study course, without prejudice to the application of sanctions in accordance with the laws in force in the event of false self-certification.

Art. 33 Final provisions

1. For any matters not expressly covered by these Regulations, reference should be made to the laws and specific Regulations in force.
2. The fees and dues covered by these Regulations, as well as the ISEE income statement brackets under art. 6, Table A and the coefficients in Table B, are all updated every three years in relation to the inflation rate and the figures for GNP growth and in accordance with any constraints placed by the laws in force.
